A SELECTED RESOURCE LIST

Use this resource list to find information on existing patents and the patenting process.

DISCLAIMER Patent searching is sometimes more an “art” than an exact “science”, therefore, please bear in mind that we are not experts in the patent field, and merely do very preliminary searches using databases in this brochure. For an exhaustive or complete search, or advice, we would have to refer you to one of the patent authorities in this brochure.

SUNNYVALE CENTER FOR INNOVATION, INVENTION & IDEAS

The Sunnyvale Center is a unique partnership between the United States Patent and Trademark Office and the City of Sunnyvale. For the first time, inventors, researchers and corporations in the Western United States and the Pacific Rim, have comprehensive access to the Patent and Trademark Office's information resources. The Sunnyvale Center provides up-to-date and complete online access to patent and trademark information, allows patent applicants to search the same databases used by patent examiners, and represents a one-start system for business assistance, information and support for inventors, product developers and investors.

Search Services: Sunnyvale librarians provide customized searches linked directly to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office as well as commercial databases. If you have a patent, trademark, or business information need, librarians can help you. To order a professional search, call (408) 730-7290 or e-mail patents@sci3.com.
